THE SUNDAY EDITION

UPDATED WORSHIP GUIDELINES

This past week the Church sent out an email message from Rev. Milton Black regarding changes to our COVID-19 worship guidelines. These are big steps forward in our return to corporate worship as we have known and loved.

On May 13th, the CDC updated their guidance for fully vaccinated individuals making wearing of masks and physically distancing both indoors and outdoors optional, and the Diocese of West Texas updated our guidelines in accordance with the CDC.

New Diocesan Changes Include:

- Fully vaccinated individuals are no longer required to wear a mask or physically distance on church property.
- Unvaccinated people are strongly encouraged to continue to wear a mask and physically distance.
- Clergy, Staff, and Lay Volunteers may not request or require proof of vaccination of any individual.
- Clergy and Lay Eucharistic Ministers are required to wear masks for distribution of communion.
- Staff/Lay Leadership working with children under 12 must wear a mask and distance.
- Communion bread and wine may be served at the altar, with wine by intinction only.
- Fellowship gatherings may return indoors and include food and drinks.

Schedule of Upcoming Changes:

Sunday, May 30th - New Mask Guideline began. (See changes above for details)

Sunday, June 6th - Communion administered at the altar. (See changes above for details.)
